Trump Signs Revised Executive Order Banning Immigrants From Six Muslim Nations

Today President Trump signed a revised version of his Executive Order banning citizens of six (6) majority-Muslim nations including Iran, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and Yemen.

The new Executive Order is more narrow in scope than the initial Order, as the travel ban does not extend to current visa holders, lawful permanent residents ("green card" holders), or Iraqi nationals.

USCIS Temporarily Suspends Premium Processing for All H-1B Petitions

Beginning April 3, 2017, USCIS will temporarily suspend premium processing for all H-1B petitions for up to six (6) months. This suspension denies petitioners the ability to file Form I-907 or Request for Premium Processing Service for Form I-129 or H-1B petitions.

If you have an H-1B petition pending and you have upcoming travel plans, a problem renewing your state driver's license, or any other issue related to your H-1B status, please notify our office as soon as possible.

For more information on the recently announced suspension of premium processing for all H-1B petitions, please click here.
